

I have parents in their 80's who at times, have become both confused and frightened over solicitation calls they have received. Perasonally I am tired of receiving 3-5 calls each evening from rude and persistant individuals. I back NJ's law.